BRP Rider Support

At BRP we understand that it takes a lot of hard work, money, support and dedication to make it in today's highly competitive racing world; and you can count on BRP's race proven products, expert knowledge and great customer service to help you achieve your dreams.

Who's a Candidate for Support?

The ideal candidate for support from BRP is the "dedicated racer" who can represent and promote his/her sponsors in a positive professional manner. At BRP we expect our riders to conduct themselves with integrity and display good sportsmanship to his/her fellow competitors at all times. We are looking for riders who compete in all the disciplines including; motocross, supercross, off-road and desert racing. All skill levels are considered for being part of the BRP family.

Maintain a Professional Appearance

BRP riders are encouraged to maintain the appearance of their equipment and display promotional materials including stickers, banners and t-shirts whenever possible.
